
GORE MUTUAL CELEBRATES 175TH ANNIVERSARY

NEWS

June 18th, 2014

Gore Mutual Insurance Company is pleased to celebrate their 175th anniversary. June 18th marks the momentous occasion for the Canadian insurance company, which was founded in 1839. Over 600 employees, brokers and business partners will join Gore Mutual at their head office in Cambridge, to celebrate this important milestone.

QUOTES

“Our company’s long history instills a deep pride and sense of purpose in all of us,” says Kevin McNeil, President and CEO of Gore Mutual who will be retiring at the end of June 2014. “There is an unspoken commitment that we share and a responsibility to uphold the values that have continued to beat at the heart of our company for 175 years.”

“It is a privilege to recognize this momentous milestone,” says Heidi Sevcik, Chief Operating Officer of Gore Mutual. “We are pleased to celebrate this occasion with our brokers, business partners and staff as they have all contributed to the success of Gore Mutual. It will be my honour to step into the role of President and CEO of this great company, on July 1, 2014.”
